The Celebration Continues

How many times have you sung the "12 Days of Christmas?" Then afterwards, you may have laughed and may have felt a bit winded having repeated all those unusual and fun gifts.

Well, that song is rooted in the church calendar that Christmas is not just a single day, but, yes, 12 days! From late on December 24 until January 6 we are still singing those Christmas songs we love. We are still meditating on the meaning of the most amazing birth and responding in joy to such good news that God has come to us. God is with us. It is such grace that God comes not in raw power or terrifying force but in a baby, vulnerable and sharing all the human experience.

The rest of the world moves rapidly on, but we are invited to linger in the joy of the message of Christmas. We are invited, after the shopping, gifting and feasting to continue the celebration of God's presence with us.

We will still be singing some of the wonderful Christmas music during Worship on both December 29th and January 5th. January 5th we will even make a point of singing more than usual with a Worship Service of Christmas Lessons and Carols.

Join us January 6th at 7:00 p.m. on Epiphany to tie it all up with the story of the Magi and the "Burning of the Greens" and a last singing of Christmas Carols.

From there, we continue to journey as God's People and our scripture readings will have us follow the adult Jesus as his ministry and identity unfold in the Sundays after Epiphany.

Prayers for our sister congregations

Once a month the clergy serving our local ELCA churches gather for updates, prayer and fellowship. RELC is part of the Potomac Conference, and we usually meet with the Fairfax Conference. The pastors agreed we should continue praying for each of the congregations. So, beginning January 5th one of our sister ELCA congregations from our local conferences will be included in the Intercessions.

Bruce Onobrakpeya: The Mask and the Cross

Nigerian sculptor and printmaker Bruce Onobrakpeya began creating works depicting Christian iconography in 1966, when Catholic priests petitioned the artist to interpret the Passion of Christ. The resulting body of work is titled Fourteen Stations of the Cross. Bruce Onobrakpeya: The Mask and the Cross showcases the earliest of these commissions, from the late 1960s, on display through January 21 at the Smithsonian National Museum of African Art, 950 Independence Ave., SW, Washington, DC.

Sacred Ground

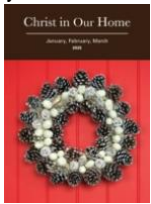

“Sacred Ground” is an 11-session spiritual journey open to all congregations in small groups starting Friday, January 10. This rich and varied curriculum is focused on Indigenous, Black, Latino, and Asian Pacific Americans as their histories intersect with European American history. SG provides historical information on how racism has impacted the ELCA and the Episcopal Churches. Learn more and register at <https://metrodcelca.org/>

Lost & Found

The Lost & Found Drawer has a new pair of occupants. One pair of black gloves, Goodfellow brand, were turned into the office. Conveniently, there is one right glove and one left glove. The label indicates that they are a Target product with the following information: “PALM: SHEEP LEATHER, BACK 61% WOOL, 29% POLYESTER 5% ACRYLIC, 5% OTHER FIBERS, LINING: 100% POLYESTER.” The owner can retrieve these black gloves in the Lost & Found Drawer in the church office and hopefully they will fit like a glove.
